Receive training and be placed in employment as a Truck Driver in less than 3 months

The Driver Education program comprises 80 hours of training delivered over two weeks. The program includes learning how to drive trucks in a training school setting, including preparing for the written and road test portions of the CDL exam, and answer questions about becoming a CDL driver. Most of the time is spent learning from experienced truck drivers with 60-80 hours of behind the wheel training, This will include a review of the Commercial Driver's Manual, CDL practice tests, inspecting the vehicle (learning vehicle parts), driving techniques, and responding to emergency situations.

Benefits of this program: $200 stipend for each week of training,
Chromebook if needed, funds for training gear, funds for basic needs (childcare, transportation, housing).

Participants who successfully complete the Teamsters Local 671 Driver Education program will earn a Class A Commercial Driver's License (CDL). With this credential, program participants will have the opportunity to earn a median hourly wage of $22.50 as a Heavy & Tractor-Trailer Truck Driver.
