

Update from the Manchester Human Services Department.

3/16/2020

To protect the health of our valuable volunteers and clients, both the AARP and VITA tax assistance programs offered at the Manchester Senior Center will be suspended. This closure is effective today, until further notice. The Manchester Human Services Department fully understands the difficult situation that leaves many of our clients in and will make every effort to resume operations, as soon as it is safe to do so.

Some potential resources for tax filers include:

If you are filing a simple return, please consider using MyFreeTaxes.Com. This online tax software is entirely free and was developed through a partnership between The United Way and HR Block, so it is also reputable and secure. The software is easy to use and only requires a smartphone.

- You can also find other free tax preparation and filing solutions mentioned at this IRS webpage.
- Filing for an extension with the IRS at this IRS webpage.
- Contacting the CT Division of Revenue Services at 860-297-5962 or by visiting their website here.
- Contacting the IRS at 800-829-1040 or by visiting their website here

We thank you for your understanding during this difficult time and hope to be serving you again soon.
